Request for an Appeal

If you have trouble reading or understanding this notice, call DTA at 1-877-382-2363 for help.

What is an appeal? If you disagree with a Department of Transitional Assistance (DTA) action, you have the right to appeal. If you appeal, you will have a hearing. Hearings are usually held in your local DTA office. If you cannot come to the office, you can have a phone hearing. An independent hearing officer will make the decision. At least ten days before the hearing, you will get a notice of the time and place of the hearing. At the hearing, a DTA employee will explain the reason for the DTA action. You or someone helping you can then explain why you disagree with the action. After the hearing, the hearing officer will make a decision and mail a copy to you.

Can I bring someone to help me? Yes. You can bring anyone you want, including a family member or friend to support or represent you. You can also bring witnesses to testify. You may be able to get free legal help. See the other side of this notice for the name and phone number of the free legal aid office in your area or go to www.masslegalhelp.org for information about free legal services.

- There is no deadline if you appeal the amount of your SNAP benefits during your certification period.
- You have 120 days if DTA fails to act on your request for benefits or services.
- You generally have 120 days if the appeal is about coercive or improper conduct by a DTA employee.
- You only have 30 days if you are appealing because your state tax refund has been held to repay an overpayment of DTA benefits.
