QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

What do you need to know about Electronic Benefits Transfer (EBT)?

- * If you already have a Washington EBT Quest card you can use it.
- * If you don't have an EBT card you can ask us to send a card in the mail. It should arrive within 10 days.
- * You will receive an instruction pamphlet with your EBT card.

Can you give your EBT card to someone to shop for you?

- * No, do not give your card or PIN to anyone.
- * Contact your worker if someone else shops for you.
- * We can give them their own card and PIN for your EBT account.

What do you need to report for food assistance between reviews?

- * When your total monthly gross income (money from all sources before deductions) goes over $1473.00.
- * When you or a member of your household wins $4250.00 or more from the lottery or other gambling activities in a single game.

How do you report changes?

- * Report changes by calling 877-501-2233.

When do you need to report changes?

- * For cash and food programs, you must report changes by the 10th of the next month after the change.

What happens if you don't report changes on time?

- * Your benefits could stop.
- * Your benefits could be late.
- * You could receive the wrong amount.
- * If you receive more benefits than you should, you must pay them back.

When will we review your case?

- * You will receive a Mid-Certification Review to complete.
- * An eligibility review form will be sent before your benefits stop.

Where can you look for more information about DSHS services?

- * You are authorized to access information at <https://www.washingtonconnection.org/home/>. This website tells you about other DSHS programs and community resources for you and your family.
