CHRISTY M WILSON
214 SW WILSON CORNER TR
GREENVILLE FL 32331

Dear Christy M Wilson

The following is information about your eligibility.

Food Assistance

Your application for Food Assistance dated January 30, 2024 is approved. You are eligible for the months listed below:

Name	Mar, 2024	Apr, 2024 Thru August 31, 2024
Christy Wilson	Eligible	Eligible
Benefit Amount	$226.00	$226.00

Before your eligibility ends, we will send you a letter telling you what to do to keep getting Food Assistance. To keep your Food Assistance from ending, you will need to complete a review by August 31, 2024. You can use the web site at www.myflorida.com/accessflorida to do this on My ACCESS Account.

Certain food assistance recipients, known as Able-Bodied Adults Without Dependents (ABAWDs) and Mandatory Work Participants will have to meet work requirements to be eligible to receive food assistance benefits. An ABAWD (age 18 through 54) or Mandatory Work Participant (age 18 through 59) is an adult without a dependent; physically and mentally able to work; not living and eating with a child under age 18; not pregnant; and not exempt from food assistance general employment program work requirements. If you are identified as an ABAWD or Mandatory Work Participant, you will be referred to participate in the SNAP Employment and Training program, operated by local workforce development board (LWDB) also known as CareerSource. To find your local LWDB or to learn more about services offered, please visit: <https://lcd.floridajobs.org/>.

Effective Dates:

- September 1, 2023, individuals up to age 50 will be subject to Able-Bodied Adult Without Dependents (ABAWD) work rules.

- October 1, 2023, individuals up to age 52 will be subject to Able-Bodied Adult Without Dependents (ABAWD) work rules and individuals up to age 59 will be subject to Mandatory Work Participant Rules.
- October 1, 2024, individuals up to age 54 will be subject to Able-Bodied Adult Without Dependents (ABAWD) work rules.

If you are identified as an ABAWD and fail to comply with work requirements, or do not have good reason not to participate, a sanction will be imposed that stops or reduces food assistance benefits. If your case is closed, you can reapply if you are exempt from work requirements, have good reason to not participate, or are working or volunteering 20 hours per week, averaged 80 hours per month.

If you are identified as Mandatory Work Participant and fail to comply with work requirements, or do not have good reason not to participate, a sanction will be imposed that stops or reduces food assistance benefits. If your case is closed, you can reapply if you are exempt from work requirements, have good reason to not participate, or are working or volunteering 30 hours per week, averaged 120 hours per month, or earning $870.00 or more a month.

For Food Assistance benefits, you must report certain changes during your certification period when your household's monthly gross income is more than your income limit of $1,580.00. If you are an ABAWD, you must report if your work hours drop below 80 hours/month. If you or a household member receives lottery or gambling winnings, you must report when the gross (before taxes or other amounts are withheld) amount is $4,250.00 or more, if won in a single game. You must report changes within 10 days following the end of the month the change happens.

If you fail to report changes as required, or if the information you provide is not correct, you may have to repay any benefits you receive for which you were not eligible and you may be prosecuted for fraud. You must report other changes and your household's situation at the time of the next recertification. If you have access to a computer, you may report your changes online at the ACCESS Florida website www.myflorida.com/accessflorida. You may also report changes by calling the ACCESS Florida Customer Call Center toll free at 1-850-300-4323 or by mail to the return address at the top of this notice.

For all programs, you must report when your address changes.

If this is the first time you have been approved for food or cash benefits, your EBT Card will be mailed to you. If you received benefits before and had a card but have lost or misplaced it, please call EBT Customer Service at 888-356-3281 to ask for a replacement card.

Go to www.myflorida.com/accessflorida and update your MyACCESS account. You will need your case number, 1407525476, to validate your account. Once you have validated your account you will be able to see the status of your benefits, view notices, renew benefits, request additional benefits, report changes, and upload documents.

For more information about available employment and training opportunities in your area, please visit: www.employflorida.com.

Food Assistance

Your Food Assistance application/review dated January 30, 2024 is denied for the following months:

Name	Jan, 2024	Feb, 2024
Christy Wilson	Ineligible	Ineligible

Reason: You are receiving the same type of assistance from another program. You or a household member already qualify for this requested benefit in another case or another category. Examples: receiving TCA or SNAP in a different case, Medicaid eligibility continues in another category, etc.

No household members are eligible for this program. You do not or no longer qualify for this benefit due to income and/or or a change in your household circumstances.

The law that supports this action is:

(FL Admin. Code = R) (FL Statute = S), S414.095 R65A-1.205

Did you know you now have an on-line account with us? Go to www.myflorida.com/accessflorida. You will need your case number, 1407525476, to activate your My ACCESS Account. Then you can get into your account with a user name and password of your choice.

If you missed your food assistance interview, it is your responsibility to contact the Department of Children and Families ACCESS Florida office to reschedule a time to complete the interview. If you need to complete a recertification, you have until the end of your current certification period to complete the interview without having to submit a new application. However, if your case is already denied or closed because you missed your interview, you must reapply, if your certification period has ended.

For applications, if you completed the interview (if required) by the 30th day after the application date, you do not need to give us a new application if you give us all the verification we asked for within 60 days from the day you originally turned in your application. If you do not give us all the verification we asked for within 60 days from the day you originally turned in your application, you will have to complete a new application.

For reviews, if you completed the interview (if required) by the end of the eligibility period, your household has until the 30th day after the end of the eligibility period to return the verifications.

Please report if anyone in your household receives an approval of public assistance or Supplemental Security Income (SSI).

Fair Hearings: If you disagree with the decision we have made, you have the right to ask for a hearing before a state hearings officer. You may be represented at the hearing by a lawyer, relative, friend or anyone you choose. If you want a hearing, you must ask for the hearing by writing, calling the call center or coming into an office within 90 days from the date at the top of this notice. If you ask for a hearing before the effective date of this notice, your benefits may continue at the prior level until the hearing decision. You may be responsible to repay any benefits if the hearing decision is not in your favor.

Nondiscrimination Policy:

In accordance with federal civil rights laws and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, the USDA, its agencies, offices, and employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, sex (including gender identity and sexual orientation), religious creed, disability, age, political beliefs, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA. Programs that receive federal financial assistance from the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), such as Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF), and programs HHS directly operates are also prohibited from discrimination under federal civil rights laws and HHS regulations.

Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (e.g., Braille, large print, audiotope, American Sign Language), should contact the agency (state or local) where they applied for benefits. Individuals who are deaf, hard of hearing or who have speech disabilities may contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339. Additionally, program information may be made available in languages other than English.

CIVIL RIGHTS COMPLAINTS INVOLVING USDA PROGRAMS

USDA provides federal financial assistance for many food security and hunger reduction programs such as the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), the Food Distribution Program on Indian Reservations (FDPIR) and others. To file a program complaint of discrimination, complete the Program Discrimination Complaint Form, (AD-3027) found online at: <https://www.usda.gov/sites/default/files/documents/ad-3027.pdf>, and at any USDA office or write a letter addressed to USDA and provide in the letter all of the information requested in the form. To request a copy of the complaint form, call (866) 632-9992. Submit your completed form or letter to USDA by:

1. mail: Food and Nutrition Service, USDA

1320 Braddock Place, Room 334, Alexandria, VA 22314; or

2. fax: (833) 256-1665 or (202) 690-7442; or
3. phone: (833) 620-1071; or
4. email: FNSCIVILRIGHTSCOMPLAINTS@usda.gov

For any other information regarding SNAP issues, persons should either contact the USDA SNAP hotline number at (800) 221-5689, which is also in Spanish, or call the state information/hotline numbers (click the link for a listing of hotline numbers by state); found online at: SNAP hotline.

CIVIL RIGHTS COMPLAINTS INVOLVING HHS PROGRAMS

HHS provides federal financial assistance for many programs to enhance health and well-being, including TANF, Head Start, the Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program (LIHEAP), and others. If you believe that you have been discriminated against because of your race, color, national origin, disability, age, sex (including pregnancy, sexual orientation, and gender identity), or religion in programs or activities that HHS directly operates or to which HHS provides federal financial assistance, you may file a complaint with the Office for Civil Rights (OCR) for yourself or for someone else.

To file a complaint of discrimination for yourself or someone else regarding a program receiving federal financial assistance through HHS, complete the form on line through OCR's Complaint Portal at <https://ocrportal.hhs.gov/ocr/>. You may also contact OCR via mail at: Centralized Case Management Operations, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Room 509F HHH Bldg., Washington, D.C. 20201; fax: (202) 619-3818; or email: OCRmail@hhs.gov. For faster processing, we encourage you to use the OCR online portal to file complaints rather than filing via mail. Persons who need assistance with filing a civil rights complaint can email OCR at OCRMail@hhs.gov or call OCR toll-free at 1-800-368-1019, TDD 1-800-537-7697. For persons who are deaf, hard of hearing, or have speech difficulties, please dial 7-1-1 to access telecommunications relay services. We also provide alternative formats (such as Braille and large print), auxiliary aids and language assistance services free of charge for filing a complaint.
