Consent to disclose your information for the refund advance loan and for a checking account with Credit Karma Money™

We're going to disclose the tax information described from your 2022 tax return to Credit Karma, MVB Bank, Inc. (the issuer of Credit Karma Money), First Century Bank (the lender), BorrowWorks (the lender service provider) and Intuit Financing, Inc. (a loan program funder), to process and fund your Refund Advance loan, administer, and communicate with you regarding the loan program and to issue and manage a checking account with Credit Karma Money™ for you.

Federal law requires this consent form be provided to you. Unless authorized by law, we cannot disclose your tax return information to third parties for purposes other than the preparation and filing of your tax return without your consent. If you consent to the disclosure of your tax return information, Federal law may not protect your tax return information from further use or distribution.

You are not required to complete this form to engage our tax return preparation services. If we obtain your signature on this form by conditioning our tax return preparation services on your consent, your consent will not be valid. If you agree to the disclosure of your tax return information, your consent is valid for the amount of time that you specify. If you do not specify the duration of your consent, your consent is valid for one year from the date of signature. If you believe your tax return information has been disclosed or used improperly in a manner unauthorized by law or without your permission, you may contact the Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA) by telephone at 1-800-366-4484, or by email at complaints@tigta.treas.gov.
