Certain food assistance recipients, known as Able-Bodied Adults Without Dependents (ABAWDs) and Mandatory Work Participants will have to meet work requirements to be eligible to receive food assistance benefits. An ABAWD (age 18 through 54) or Mandatory Work Participant (age 18 through 59) is an adult without a dependent; physically and mentally able to work; not living and eating with a child under age 18; not pregnant; and not exempt from food assistance general employment program work requirements. If you are identified as an ABAWD or Mandatory Work Participant, you will be referred to participate in the SNAP Employment and Training program, operated by local workforce development board (LWDB) also known as CareerSource. To find your local LWDB or to learn more about services offered, please visit: <https://lcd.floridajobs.org/> .

Effective Dates:

- September 1, 2023, individuals up to age 50 will be subject to Able-Bodied Adult Without Dependents (ABAWD) work rules.
- October 1, 2023, individuals up to age 52 will be subject to Able-Bodied Adult Without Dependents (ABAWD) work rules and individuals up to age 59 will be subject to Mandatory Work Participant Rules.
- October 1, 2024, individuals up to age 54 will be subject to Able-Bodied Adult Without Dependents (ABAWD) work rules.

If you are identified as an ABAWD and fail to comply with work requirements, or do not have good reason not to participate, a sanction will be imposed that stops or reduces food assistance benefits. If your case is closed, you can reapply if you are exempt from work requirements, have good reason to not participate, or are working or volunteering 20 hours per week, averaged 80 hours per month.

If you are identified as Mandatory Work Participant and fail to comply with work requirements, or do not have good reason not to participate, a sanction will be imposed that stops or reduces food assistance benefits. If your case is closed, you can reapply if you are exempt from work requirements, have good reason to not participate, or are working or volunteering 30 hours per week, averaged 120 hours per month, or earning $870.00 or more a month.

More information about food assistance work activities, including exemptions and reasons for good cause, can be found at <https://myflfamilies.com/services/public-assistance/abawd>.

For Food Assistance benefits, you must report certain changes during your certification period when your household's monthly gross income is more than your income limit of $3,250.00. If you or a household member receives lottery or gambling winnings, you must report when the gross (before taxes or other amounts are withheld) amount is $4,250.00 or more, if won in a single game. If you are an ABAWD, you must also report if your work hours drop below 80 hours/month. You must report changes within 10 days following the end of the month the change happens.

If you fail to report changes as required, or if the information you provide is not correct, you may have to repay any benefits you receive for which you were not eligible and you may be prosecuted for fraud. You must report other changes and your household's situation at the time of the next recertification. If you have access to a computer, you may report your changes online at the ACCESS Florida website www.myflorida.com/accessflorida. You may also report changes by calling the ACCESS Florida Customer Call Center toll free at 1-850-300-4323, or by mail to the return address at the top of this notice.

The requirement to report changes for Cash and Medicaid benefits is different. If you are receiving either of those benefits, you must still report all changes in your household's circumstances within 10 days.

For all programs, you must report when your address changes.

If you get Cash Assistance or Medicaid, you must report changes in your household circumstances within 10 days. If you fail to report changes as required, or if the information you provide is not correct, you may have to repay any benefits you receive for which you were not eligible and you may be prosecuted for fraud. If you have access to a computer, you may report your changes online at the ACCESS Florida web site www.myflorida.com/accessflorida. You may also report changes by calling the ACCESS Florida Customer Call Center at 850-300-4323, or by mail to the return address at the top of this notice.

If you are no longer eligible for SNAP (Food Assistance)

If you missed your food assistance interview, it is your responsibility to contact the Department of Children and Families Economic Self-Sufficiency Office to reschedule a time to complete the interview. However, if your case is already denied or closed because you missed your interview, you must reapply.

For applications, if you completed the interview (if required) by the 30th day after the application date, you do not need to submit a new application if you provide the verification documents required within 60 days from the day you originally turned in your application. If you do not provide all the verification required within 60 days from the day you originally turned in your application, you will have to complete a new application.

For reviews, if you completed the interview (if required) by the end of the eligibility period, your household has until the 30th day after the end of the eligibility period to return the verifications.

If you are no longer eligible for Medicaid

You are receiving this notice because the State of Florida Department of Children and Families reviewed your eligibility for Medicaid. You have been found to be ineligible for Medicaid, or the Department has been unable to determine your eligibility.

If the reason you were found ineligible is because the Department needed information from you, you can still complete your review. You have 90 days from the date your Medicaid ends to complete your review or return all the required information. After reviewing the information, we may be able to determine that you are eligible, and you will not have to file a new application.

An interview is required if you requested Medicaid and a disability decision is still needed. If this applies to you, you should have received a notice stating that. If you completed the interview by the end of the eligibility period, your household has until the 30th day after the end of the eligibility period to return the verifications. However, if your case is already denied or closed because you missed your interview, you must reapply.

Options for Healthcare

Below you will find several options where you may be able to obtain health care for yourself and your family if you are not eligible for Medicaid.

Florida KidCare

If you have children under 18 and your child no longer qualifies for Medicaid, Florida KidCare is a low-cost option to keep your children covered with high-quality health and dental insurance. We will automatically share your information with Florida KidCare (floridakidcare.org) and they will send you a letter about how to sign up. Many families pay just $15 or $20 a month to cover all qualifying children in the household. Keep an eye out for a notice from Florida KidCare.

Federally Subsidized Health Programs

Healthcare.gov provides health insurance, including low-cost subsidized income-based plans. You can also contact their call center at 1-800-318-2596 (TTY: 1-855-889-4325). You can start your application now to obtain coverage as soon as possible. Answer “Yes” when asked if anyone has been found not eligible or had coverage terminated for Medicaid or Children’s Health Insurance in the last 90 days.

Healthcare Navigators

Healthcare Navigators provide free services to individuals who need help to find the best health insurance options within the Federal Marketplace. The Florida Chief Financial Officer provides a list of Florida-registered and federally certified Navigators at myfloridacfo.com. You can contact these organizations directly at any time.

The Florida Chief Financial Officer webpage also provides a resource guide on Health Insurance and HMO Overview at myfloridacfo.com.

Federally Qualified Health Centers (FQHCs) and Look-Alikes (LALs)

FQHCs are not insurance but health care providers who provide medical care for clients with limited or no health insurance. Services are offered on a sliding scale based on income. You can locate FQHCs and LALs by State at data.hrsa.gov.

Commercial Coverage

Provides health care coverage (including employer sponsored or private) for a monthly fee, and coordinate care for clients through a defined network of physicians and hospitals. The Florida Chief Financial Officer’s website provides guidance on purchasing insurance at myfloridacfo.com.
