Glossary

Glossary / Definitions
INSTITUTIONAL COSTS	Institutional costs are the direct educational expenses the school bills your account, e.g., tuition, fees, books and supplies. These amounts may be subject to change. Regulations require that certain Pell Grant eligible students be provided by the 7th day of classes a means to obtain or purchase required books and supplies. This provision is available only to students who have submitted all required title IV financial aid paperwork at least 10 days before the beginning of classes and who are anticipated to have a credit balance, and is subject to certain other conditions. For detailed information on how we fulfill this requirement, refer to our catalog located on the school website.
ACADEMIC YEAR	The length of an Academic Year is defined by your program of enrollment, i.e., two semesters, three quarters, or two payment periods. You may have more than one Academic Year in an Award Year. For purposes of federal student aid, an Award Year begins on July 1 of one year and ends on June 30 of the next year.
EXPECTED ENROLLMENT STATUS	Some types of financial aid are awarded based on enrollment status. Your financial aid may be revised or recalculated if your expected schedule or enrollment status changes. Refer to your catalog for your program's definitions of Full Time and Part Time enrollment.
GRANTS / SCHOLARSHIPS	Grants and scholarships are considered gift aid, and generally do not need to be repaid.
FEDERAL PELL GRANT	This grant program is for undergraduate students pursuing their first Bachelor's degree. The actual amount of the award is based on financial need, cost to attend school, enrollment status and the number of terms/payment periods attended.
FSEOG	This grant program is for undergraduate students with exceptional financial need. Priority is given to students with Federal Pell Grant eligibility. There is a limited pool of funding and the School determines recipients based on Federal Regulations. Once funds are depleted, no further awards are made.
NET AMOUNTS FOR FEDERAL DIRECT LOANS	In addition to interest, you pay a loan origination fee that is a percentage of the principal amount of each Direct Loan that you receive. The dollar amount of the loans shown represents the net amount of the loans after origination fees have been deducted. The net amount is the amount available to you to use towards your education related costs. The Department of Education deducts these fees from the loans before you receive the money, so the loan amount that you actually receive will be less than the amount you have borrowed. For current fees, please visit: https://studentaid.gov/understand-aid/types/loans/interest-rates .
FEDERAL DIRECT LOANS	For those who qualify, Federal Direct Loans are available to students regardless of income. Federal student loans are required by law to provide a range of flexible repayment options, including, but not limited to, income-based repayment and income-contingent repayment plans, and loan forgiveness benefits, which other student loans are not required to provide.
EMPLOYER REIMBURSEMENT SELF_ADMINISTERED AND/OR DIRECT BILL	Employer Reimbursement are funds paid by your employer for educational expenses. The funds can either be paid by the student (self-administered) or paid directly to the school (direct bill). Please contact your employer for more information.

PRIVATE LOAN	Private education loans are credit-based loans and not part of the Title IV Federal Financial Aid programs. These loan funds, when available, come from private lenders. Students and their parents have the right and ability to select the education loan provider of their choice, and will suffer no penalty from the school for the loan provider they choose. Private student loan lenders can offer variable interest rates that can increase or decrease over time, depending on market conditions. Private student loans have a range of interest rates and fees and students should determine the interest rate of, and any fees associated with , the private student loan included in their financial aid award package before accepting the loan. The interest rate on a private loan may depend on the borrower's credit rating. Students should contact the lender of the private student loan or their postsecondary educational institution's financial aid office if they have any questions about a private student loan.
MILITARY AND / OR NATIONAL SERVICE BENEFITS	For information about VA education benefits please visit https://benefits.va.gov/benefits/ The Financial Aid Shopping Sheet was created by the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau and the Department of Education to present families with a uniform, easy-to-understand explanation of the total cost of post-secondary education and their options for financing it.
