Dear Moises M Munoz,

This letter is about your Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) benefits. This letter tells you what you qualify for and next steps. It also has information about your right to appeal these decisions.

What you qualify for

SNAP Benefits

We reviewed your information for SNAP benefits and made a decision on January 12, 2023 at 8:31 PM.

For questions about SNAP, contact Community Support TM at Adams - HSC at (720) 523-2800 or 11860 PECOS ST WESTMINSTER CO 80234.

Your SNAP benefits have changed.

- ✗ Your SNAP benefits have increased because there was a change in your household circumstances. Starting January 2023, your household will get $376.00 each month until January 2023.

Who this benefit is for

- ✓ These people qualify for this benefit: Moises Munoz

More about your SNAP benefits

- As a result of COVID-19, your 01/2023 SNAP benefits have been temporarily increased. You will be sent a new notice if there are any other changes to your SNAP benefits.
- You may qualify for free nutrition education classes. To learn more, call SNAP-Education at 1-844-393-SNAP (1-844-393-7627).

Reporting your changes and managing your benefits online

Report changes to your information

For most programs, you must report changes for your household that could affect your benefits.

Examples of changes to report:

- Household address
- Income
- If your household changes because someone in your household marries, divorces, becomes pregnant, has or adopts a child, or joins or leaves the household for any reason
- If someone gets health coverage through an employer, COBRA, Medicare, VA Health or another source
- If someone is incarcerated

Use PEAK® to manage SNAP online

Go to CO.gov/PEAK and create a username and password. You can:

- Sign up to get email or text notifications
- See what benefits you have and when they need to be renewed
- Report changes
- Apply for other benefits

Use the Health First Colorado mobile app and take control of your coverage! Make an account at CO.gov/PEAK, and then download the free Health First Colorado app.

Use the Health First Colorado app to:

- See if your coverage is active
- Learn about your benefits
- Update your information
- Find providers
- View your member ID card

If you disagree with our decision

We made our decisions by reviewing the information you gave us, including household size and income. We also get information from other state and federal sources.

You have the right to appeal decisions about your benefits, including whether you qualify and how much assistance you get. Appeal means you tell a county or state office that you disagree with a decision and you want a hearing. You may be able to continue to get benefits while you appeal. See the box below for more information.

You have the right to represent yourself at your appeal hearing. You may also choose a lawyer, relative, friend or any other person to act as your authorized representative. You may be able to get free legal help, call Colorado Legal Services at 1-303-837-1313 or visit coloradolegalservices.org for more information.

To disagree with a decision for SNAP

You can request an informal meeting, appeal (ask for a formal hearing) or both. You may be able to address issues more quickly through an informal meeting (also called a county conference). If you also want to appeal, you must do it by the deadline below, even if you also want to try an informal meeting.

To ask for an informal meeting for SNAP
Deadline to request an informal meeting for SNAP: April 13, 2023	To ask for an informal meeting (county conference), you can call your county human services office and request one. Or, send a letter to your county with your name, address, telephone number, case number, and the reason you disagree with the decision. Send the letter to: ADAMS County 11860 PECOS ST WESTMINSTER CO 80234 Phone: (720) 523-2800
To appeal (ask for a formal hearing) for SNAP
Deadline to appeal for SNAP: April 13, 2023	You can ask for a formal hearing with a judge (also called a State Fair Hearing) in any of these ways: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Visit cdhs.colorado.gov/snap to download a copy of an Appeal Request form, or• Mail, fax, or bring a letter to your county office at the address indicated above. Include:<ul style="list-style-type: none">◦ Your name◦ Your signature (if mailing or faxing)◦ Your mailing address◦ Your daytime telephone number◦ The reason for your appeal◦ A copy of this notice. Be sure to keep a copy of the letter and this notice for your records.• Alternatively, you may call your county office and ask for a formal hearing. The county will help you put your request in writing.• Your county office will forward your appeal request to the Office of Appeals. Do not send correspondence directly to the Office of Appeals.

- The Office of Appeals will mail you the date, time, and place for your hearing.

Continuing your benefits during an appeal

SNAP: If you file an appeal for SNAP, you may receive your assistance at your current amount until your hearing is decided or until your benefit period ends, whichever comes first. To continue getting benefits while you appeal, you must request the appeal by December 31, 2022. To make sure your benefits continue, request a hearing as soon as possible.

If you continue to receive benefits during the appeal and then lose your appeal, your household will owe us the value of any benefits you received during that time that you were not eligible to receive. If you don't want to continue to receive benefits during the appeal, you must tell your county department of human services.

Non-Discrimination Policy for SNAP

This institution is prohibited from discriminating on the basis of race, color, national origin, disability, age, sex and in some cases religion or political beliefs.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture also prohibits discrimination based on race, color, national origin, sex, religious creed, disability, age, political beliefs or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA.

Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (e.g. Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language, etc.), should contact the Agency (State or local) where they applied for benefits. Individuals who are deaf, hard of hearing or have speech disabilities may contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339. Additionally, program information may be made available in languages other than English.

To file a program complaint of discrimination, complete the USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form, (AD-3027), found online at: http://www.ascr.usda.gov/complaint_filing_cust.html and at any USDA office, or write a letter addressed to USDA and provide in the letter all of the information requested in the form. To request a copy of the complaint form, call (866) 632-9992. Submit your completed form or letter to USDA by:

(1) mail: U.S. Department of Agriculture
Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights
1400 Independence Avenue, SW
Washington, D.C. 20250-9410

(2) fax: (202) 690-7442; or

(3) email: program.intake@usda.gov.

For any other information dealing with SNAP issues, persons should either contact the USDA SNAP Hotline Number at (800) 221-5689, which is also in Spanish or call the State Information/Hotline Numbers (click the link for a listing of hotline numbers by State); found online at: http://www.fns.usda.gov/snap/contact_info/hotlines.htm.

To file a complaint of discrimination regarding a program receiving Federal financial assistance through the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS), write: HHS Director, Office for Civil Rights, Room 515-F, 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20201 or call (202) 619-0403 (voice) or (800) 537-7697 (TTY).
