Other Health Insurance Options

People in your household who DO NOT qualify for Health First Colorado or Child Health Plan Plus (CHP+):

You may choose to enroll in a private health insurance plan through an employer, a private broker, or Connect for Health Colorado.

You may qualify for financial assistance through Connect for Health Colorado that can be used to lower the price of a private health insurance plan.

- Information from your application may have been sent to Connect for Health Colorado. You must sign up for a plan within 60 days of the last day of your Health First Colorado or CHP+ coverage.
- Learn more at ConnectforHealthCO.com or call 1-855-752-6749.
- If you would like to seek in-person assistance with your health insurance options you may find assistance at <https://connectforhealthco.com/we-can-help/>.

Even if people in your household qualify for Medical Assistance benefits, you can choose to buy a full price private health insurance plan. This is optional. Health First Colorado and CHP+ members do not have to consider, or enroll in, other health insurance options. If you choose to buy private health insurance, it could affect your Health First Colorado or CHP+ Medical Assistance benefits. To learn more, go to <https://connectforhealthco.com/get-started/health-first-colorado/>.

Reporting your changes and managing your benefits online

Report changes to your information

For most programs, you must report changes for your household that could affect your benefits.

used to determine if you qualify for Health First Colorado or CHP+.

You have the right to appeal decisions about your benefits, including whether you qualify and how much assistance you get. Appeal means you tell a county or state office that you disagree with a decision and you want a hearing. You may be able to continue to get benefits while you appeal. See the box below for more information.

You have the right to represent yourself at your appeal hearing. You may also choose a lawyer, relative, friend or any other person to act as your authorized representative. You may be able to get free legal help, call Colorado Legal Services at 1-303-837-1313 or visit coloradolegalservices.org for more information.

To disagree with a decision for Health First Colorado (Medicaid)

You can request an informal meeting, appeal (ask for a formal hearing) or both. You may be able to address issues more quickly through an informal meeting (also called a county conference). If you also want to appeal, you must do it by the deadline below, even if you also want to try an informal meeting.

To ask for an informal meeting for Health First Colorado (Medicaid)
Deadline to request an informal meeting for Health First Colorado (Medicaid): March 19, 2024	If you disagree with our decision about your eligibility, you can ask for an informal meeting (county conference). Contact your county human services office or eligibility site and request one. Or, send a letter to your county or eligibility site with your name, address, telephone number, case number, and the reason you disagree with the decision. Send the letter to: ARAPAHOE County 14980 E ALAMEDA DR STE 007 AURORA CO 80012-1542 Phone: (303) 636-1170
To appeal (ask for a formal hearing) for Health First Colorado (Medicaid)
Deadline to appeal for Health First Colorado (Medicaid): March 19, 2024	You can ask for a formal hearing with a judge (also called a State Fair Hearing) in any of these ways: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Mail, fax, or bring a letter to the Office of Administrative Courts with:<ul style="list-style-type: none">◦ Your name◦ Your signature (if mailing or faxing)◦ Your mailing address◦ Your daytime telephone number◦ The reason for your appeal◦ A copy of this notice. NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES

This notice describes how medical information about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information.

Please review it carefully.

Your Rights

You have the right to:

- Get a copy of your health and claims records
- Correct your health and claims records
- Request confidential communication
- Ask us to limit the information we share
- Get a list of those with whom we've shared your information
- Get a copy of this privacy notice
- Choose someone to act for you
- File a complaint if you believe your privacy rights have been violated

➤ See column on right
for more information on these rights and how to exercise them

Your Choices

You have some choices in the way that we use and share information as we:

- Answer coverage questions from your family and friends
- Provide disaster relief
- Market our services and sell your information

➤ See page 2
for more information on these choices and how to exercise them

Our Uses & Disclosures

We may use and share your information as we:

- Help manage the health care treatment you receive
- Run our organization
- Pay for your health services
- Administer your health plan
- Help with public health and safety issues
- Do research
- Comply with the law
- Address workers' compensation, law enforcement, and other government requests
- Respond to lawsuits and legal actions

for more information on these uses and disclosures

When it comes to your health information, you have certain rights.

This section explains your rights and some of our responsibilities.

Your Rights

Get a copy of your health and claims records

- You can ask to see or get a copy of your health and claims records and other health information we have about you. Ask us how to do this.
- We will provide a copy or a summary of your health and claims records, usually within 30 days of your request. We reserve the right to charge a reasonable, cost-based fee.

Ask us to correct health and claims records

- You can ask us to correct your health and claims records if you think they are incorrect or incomplete. Ask us how to do this.
- We may say "no" to your request, but we'll tell you why in writing within 60 days.

Request confidential communications

- You can ask us to contact you in a specific way (for example, home or office phone) or to send mail to a different address.
- We will consider all reasonable requests, and must say "yes" if you tell us you would be in danger if we do not.

Ask us to limit what we use or share

- You can ask us not to use or share certain health information for treatment, payment, or our operations.
- We are not required to agree to your request, and we may say "no" if it would affect your care.

Get a list of those with whom we've shared information

- You can ask for a list (accounting) of the times we've shared your health information for six years prior to the date you make the request, who we shared it with, and why.
- It's our responsibility to include all the disclosures except for those about treatment, payment, and health care operations, and certain other disclosures (such as any you asked us to make). We'll provide one accounting a year for free but will charge a reasonable, cost-based fee if you ask for another one within 12 months.

Get a copy of this privacy notice

- You can ask for a paper copy of this notice at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will provide you with a paper copy promptly.

Choose someone to act for you

- If you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information.
- We will make sure the person has this authority and can act for you before we take any action.

File a complaint if you feel your rights are violated

- You can complain if you feel we have violated your rights by contacting us using the information on page 1 or contacting the Privacy Officer at 303-866-4366.
- You can file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights by sending a letter to 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20201, calling 1-877-696-6775 or visiting www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/complaints
- We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.

For certain health information, you can tell us your choices about what we share. If you have a clear preference for how we share your information in the situations described below, talk to us. Tell us what you want us to do, and we will follow your instructions.

Your Choices

- In these cases, you have both the right and choice to tell us to:
- Share information with your family, close friends, or others involved in payment for your care
 - Share information in a disaster relief situation

If you are not able to tell us your preference, for example if you are unconscious, we may go ahead and share your information if we believe it is in your best interest. We may also share your information when needed to lessen a serious and imminent threat to health or safety.

- In these cases we never share your information unless you give us written permission:
- Marketing purposes
 - Sale of your information

How do we typically use or share your health information?
We typically use or share your health information in the following ways.

Our Uses & Disclosures

- Help manage the health care treatment you receive
- We can use your health information and share it with professionals who are treating you.
Example: A specialist sends us a request for your diagnosis and treatment plan so he can further treat you.
- Run our organization
- We can use and disclose your information to run our organization and contact you when necessary.
Example: We use health information about you to develop better services for you.
 - We are not allowed to use genetic information to decide whether we will give you coverage and the price of that coverage. This does not apply to long term care plans.
- Pay for your health services
- We can use and disclose your health information as we pay for your health services.
Example: We share information about you with your dental plan to coordinate payment for your dental work.
- Administer your plan
- We may disclose your health information to your health plan sponsor for plan administration.
Example: Your company contracts with us to provide a health plan, and we provide your company with certain statistics to explain the premiums we charge.

How else can we use or share your health information?

We are allowed or required to share your information in other ways – usually in ways that contribute to the public good, such as public health and research. We have to meet many conditions in the law before we can share your information for these purposes. For more information see: www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/understanding/consumers

- Help with public health and safety issues
- We can share health information about you for certain situations such as:
- Preventing disease
 - Helping with product recalls
 - Reporting adverse reactions to medications
 - Reporting suspected abuse, neglect, or domestic violence
 - Preventing or reducing a serious threat to anyone's health or safety
- Do research
- We can use or share your information for health research.
- Comply with the law
- We will share information about you if state or federal laws require it, including with the Department of Health and Human Services if it wants to see that we're complying with federal privacy law.
- Respond to organ & tissue donation requests & work with a medical examiner or funeral director
- We can share health information about you with organ procurement organizations.
- We can share health information with a coroner, medical examiner or funeral director when an individual dies.
- Address workers' compensation, law enforcement, and other government requests
- We can use or share health information about you:
- For workers' compensation claims
 - For law enforcement purposes or with a law enforcement official
 - With health oversight agencies for activities authorized by law
 - For special government functions such as military, national security, and presidential protective services
- Respond to lawsuits and legal actions
- We can share health information about you in response to a court or administrative order, or in response to a subpoena.

There are federal and state laws that may protect or restrict certain types of health information from use or disclosure, such as information regarding HIV/AIDS, mental health, genetic tests, alcohol and drug abuse, sexually transmitted diseases and reproductive health, and child or adult abuse or neglect.

Our Responsibilities

- We are required by law to maintain the privacy and security of your protected health information.
- We will let you know promptly if a breach occurs that may have compromised the privacy or security of your information.
- We must follow the duties and privacy practices described in this notice and give you a copy of it.
- We will not use or share your information other than as described here unless you tell us we can in writing. If you tell us we can, you may change your mind at any time. Let us know in writing if you change your mind.

For more information see:

www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/understanding/consumers

Changes to the Terms of this Notice We can change the terms of this notice, and the changes will apply to all information we have about you. The new notice will be available upon request and on our website.

This notice applies to the Colorado Department of Health Care Policy and Financing. Please see top of Page 1 for contact information.
