LIFE STORY

Alpha Omega
May 29, 1951 - February 5, 2023

PASTOR HOMER LANE PRINTUP – Age 71, was the 5th child born to the union of the late Joann Evans Sanders and S.B. Printup on May 29, 1951. He was educated in the Bartow County School System and graduated with the Cass High School Class of 1969. Homer proudly served four years in the United States Air Force. He was further educated at Coosa Valley Technical College and Rainbow Bible College. Homer was employed at Chemical Products Corp for 30 years. He was an electrician by trade; however, he also worked as an appliance repairman. Homer's ultimate and most rewarding job was as a repairman of human souls, as he dedicated much of his life to preaching and teaching the gospel and leading others to Christ. He wholeheartedly believed and was often heard quoting, "He that hath an ear, let him hear." Homer was very passionate about the souls and the salvation of others. For years, he taught Sunday School, ministered, and ultimately pastored at Queens Chapel Independent Methodist Church.

In his spare time, Homer enjoyed bowling, and he was an avid golfer. He was a member of a bowling league and president of the Prime Time Golf Association. Homer was a bridge in the community, where he mentored youth as a former little league baseball coach and parent supporter of the local Girls Scout Troop. He was a prayer warrior who was committed for many years to ministering at a jail ministry, a long time member of the Northwest Georgia Prayer Band, member of the Black Clergy Association of Bartow County, and he's recognized on the Kingston Veteran's Wall. Homer donated to various local charitable organizations.

Homer was most proud of his children; he loved his family!

Homer was preceded in death by his wife, Carolyn Hull Printup; parents, Joann Evans Sanders and Billy Sanders, and Spencer Byron "S. B." Printup; and siblings, Brenda Smith, Phillip Printup, Spencer Printup, and Vontella Printup Weathers. He is survived by his children, Darrell Wise (Stacey), Linda Burks (Reggie) both of Rome, GA, Mark Williams of Kingston, GA, Corey Wiggins (Jennie) of Cartersville, GA, Tracy Ayers of Dayton, OH; Hometta Printup, Vanity Printup, Raven Printup, and Jamila Printup all of Cartersville, GA; and Jaquantas Printup and Nevaeh Printup of Kingston, GA; step children, Ladell Evans, Lyerly, GA and Patrick Evans, Rome, GA; 21 grandchildren, 11 great-grandchildren; sisters, Cathy Printup, Wendy Linley (Tommy), London Smith (Weuka) all of Kingston, GA; & Elizabeth Printup of Calhoun, GA; aunts, Linda McDaniel of Calhoun, GA and Annie Bell Sanders of Kingston, GA; sister-in-law, Mary (Mose) Adams of Lyerly, GA; brother-in-law, Michael (Joyce) Hull of Coosa, GA; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, fellow clergyman, and a multitude of friends.

His Journey's Just Begun

By Ellen Brenneman

"Don't think of him as gone away
his journey's just begun,
life holds so many facets
this earth is only one.
Just think of him as resting from the sorrows and the tears
in a place of warmth and comfort
where there are no days and years.
Think how he must be wishing
that we could know today
how nothing but our sadness
can really pass away.
And think of him as living
in the hearts of those he touched... for nothing loved is ever lost
and he was loved so much."
