MEETING TO REVIEW THE EVALUATION AND DETERMINE ELIGIBILITY

☒ The results of the evaluation or reevaluation of your child will be available. By law, we must meet with you to review the evaluation results for your child, including any evaluations or information you wish to provide, current classroom-based assessments and observations, and teacher or other staff observations, to determine, with your input:

- 1) your child's academic achievement, functional performance, and educational needs
- 2) whether your child has or continues to have an exceptionality; and
- 3) whether your child needs special education and related services.

MEETING TO DEVELOP THE INDIVIDUALIZED EDUCATION PROGRAM (IEP)

As the parent of an exceptional child, you are entitled to a 10-day prior written notice of any meeting to discuss the needs of your child and develop an individualized education program (IEP). You may consent to hold the meeting with less than 10-days written notice.

The team will make its decisions based upon the results of the evaluation procedures which we previously told you we would administer in the Notice of Proposed Evaluation and Request for Consent, which you signed. The team will also consider the strengths of your child and any recommendations you have for enhancing the education of your child.

If it is determined that your child is eligible, or continues to be eligible, for special education and related services, the IEP team will develop an individualized education program (IEP) for your child and determine the appropriate placement.

☐ Discuss possible changes in your child's individualized education program (IEP).

☐ Conduct an annual review of your child's individualized education program (IEP).

☐ If your child will be at least 14 years old during the anticipated duration of this IEP, the IEP team will develop postsecondary goals based on transition assessments and transition services to promote movement from school to post school activities. Postsecondary goals and transition services can be considered at a younger age if determined appropriate by the IEP Team. Your child is invited by the school to attend the meeting.

☐ Other

As required by federal and state law, in addition to you, we will have the following people at our IEP meeting:

1. A general education teacher of your child
2. A special education teacher of your child
3. A school representative
4. If this is an initial IEP, a representative of the Part C system (Early Intervention Program for Infants and Toddlers with Disabilities) if your child is transitioning from Part C to Part B, and you have requested participation of a Part C representative.
5. Student, AMIR LASHAWN JOHNSON-OLIVER. As required by federal and state regulations, the district invites your son/daughter to attend the IEP meeting when postsecondary goals and transition services will be considered. Postsecondary goals and transition services can be considered at any age, but must be included in the first IEP to be in effect when your child reaches age 14.
6. Other(s) who can help explain the evaluation results or who have knowledge or special expertise regarding your child or services that may be needed.

PROCEDURAL SAFEGUARDS TO PROTECT PARENTS' RIGHTS

Both state and federal laws concerning the education of children with exceptionalities include many parental rights. Receiving notices of action the school wants to take in regard to your child and being a part of your child's educational planning team are examples of the rights these laws give you. These laws also require that the school follow certain procedures to make sure you know your rights and have an opportunity to exercise those rights. A copy of your rights (in native language) is provided to you upon request, and at least once each year. You should carefully read them and, if you have any questions regarding your rights, you may contact the school representative listed above.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

You may contact any of the following resources to help you understand the federal and state laws for educating children with exceptionalities and parental rights (procedural safeguards) granted by those laws: Kansas State Dept. of Education 800-203-9462; Disability Rights Center of Kansas (DRC) (877) 776-1541; Families Together, Inc. 800-264-6343; and Keys for Networking 785-233-8732.
