Dear Hector J Bermudez

The following is information about your eligibility.

Food Assistance

We have reviewed your eligibility and found that your Food Assistance benefits will stay the same.

Name	Status
Hector Bermudez	Eligible

Certain food assistance recipients, known as Able-Bodied Adults Without Dependents (ABAWDs) will have to meet work requirements to be eligible to receive food assistance benefits. An ABAWD is an able-bodied adult without a dependent who is age 18 through 49; physically and mentally able to work; not living and eating with a child under age 18; not pregnant; and not exempt from food assistance general employment program work requirements. If you are identified as an ABAWD, you will be referred to participate in the SNAP Employment and Training program, operated by local workforce development areas (LWDA) also known as CareerSource. To find your local LWDA or to learn more about services offered, please visit: <https://lcd.floridajobs.org/>.

If you are identified as an ABAWD and fail to comply with work requirements, or do not have good reason not to participate, a sanction will be imposed that stops or reduces food assistance benefits. If your case is closed, you can reapply if you are exempt from work requirements, have good reason to not participate, or are working or volunteering 20 hours per week, averaged 80 hours per month.

More information about food assistance work activities, including exemptions and reasons for good cause, can be found at <http://www.myflfamilies.com/service-programs/access-florida/abawdfaq>.

For Food Assistance benefits, the only change you must report during your certification period is when your household's monthly gross income is more than your income limit of $1,473.00. You must report this change within 10 days following the end of the month the change happens. If your household income was higher than this amount at the time of your last application or review, you should report changes at the next review. If you fail to report changes as required, or if the information you provide is not correct, you may have to repay any benefits you receive for which you were not eligible and you may be prosecuted for fraud. You must report other changes and your household's situation at the time of the next recertification. If you have access to a computer, you may report your changes online at the ACCESS Florida website www.myflorida.com/accessflorida. You may also report changes by calling the ACCESS Florida Customer Call Center toll free at 1-866-762-2237, or by mail to the return address at the top of this notice. .

For all programs, you must report when your address changes.

Go to www.myflorida.com/accessflorida and update your MyACCESS account. You will need your case number, 1437230547, to validate your account. Once you have validated your account you will be able to see the status of your benefits, view notices, renew benefits, request additional benefits, report changes, and upload documents.
