Dear Parent/Guardian:

As part of a Demonstration Project for the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA), records provided by the Florida Department of Children and Families indicate that the child(ren) listed below live in your household and is/are eligible for free school breakfast and lunch due to receipt of Medicaid benefits. This child/these children will automatically receive free meals beginning tomorrow or the next operating day. If a child in your household is not listed below, please call the Food and Nutrition Services Department at 754-321-0250. We hope this will make it easier for your child(ren) to take part in the School Nutrition Programs.
